

Evening Retreat for MUSIC MINISTERS

Tuesday, June 12 & Wednesday, June 13, 2012

Presenter: Fr. David, Cinquegrani, C.P.

(Same program both evenings.)

We know that faith grows when it is well expressed in celebration. Good celebrations foster and nourish faith but poor celebrations may weaken or destroy it. (MCW #6) What constitutes a good celebration of the liturgy? Music is one essential element that enables the full meaning and impact of the liturgy to shine forth clearly. This evening retreat will provide some important materials for creating meaningful celebrations. Music Directors, Pastoral Ministers, Choir Members, Church Musicians, Liturgy Directors and Pastors are welcome to this reflective time of prayer and discussion. The evening will include dinner, an address by Fr. David Cinquegrani, C.P., and a festive Eucharistic liturgy. We hope that you and your parishioners can join in the celebration! The evening begins with a buffet dinner at 6:00 p.m. and concludes at 9:00 p.m. (NPM members cost is $25. per person. Please note membership in comment section when registering online).
