

Annual St. Paul of the Cross Lecture: A Needy God

Fr. John Baptist Pesce, C.P.

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

Day Retreat: 10:00 a.m.- 2:00 p.m. Evening Retreat: 6:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Offering: $35

One of the most beloved and powerful preachers in the northeast, Fr. John will explore how Christ invites us to participate in the divine life. The all-powerful God who is well able to care for his creation has made himself dependent upon his creatures. Together we will explore the summons God issues to us to work with him for the fulfillment of the prayer Jesus taught us, "thy kingdom come... on earth as it is in heaven."

The St. Paul of the Cross Lecture at Holy Family Passionist Retreat Center is given annually by someone whose prophetic vision and courage echoes the mission of the Passionist founder, St. Paul of the Cross, to share God's love with the world. The St. Paul of the Cross Lecture seeks to empower others to become agents of peacemaking, justice, and change in the world.

Fr. John Baptist Pesce, C.P. has been a Passionist priest for over 50 years. He is best known for his passionate and inspiring preaching, which has touched the hearts of countless people who have come to pray with him in his daily celebration of the Eucharist each morning at 7:00 a.m. at Holy Family. Most recently he was awarded the Bishop Joseph Donnelly Memorial Award from the Archdiocese of Hartford for his tireless advocacy of social justice.
